To join Mark Zuckerberg's team, you must apply directly for open roles at Meta Careers. If you are a top-tier artificial intelligence researcher, you may also be directly recruited by Zuckerberg or his senior executives to join specialized teams like Meta Superintelligence Labs. Meta Careers +2

Applying through Meta Careers

The most common way to work with Zuckerberg is by passing the standard hiring process for Meta Platforms (the parent company of Facebook and Instagram). Wikipedia +1

- Find a Role: Browse open engineering, product, and research positions on the Meta Careers portal.
- Show Impact: Meta prioritizes candidates who drive results and build technologies that help "bring the world closer together". Facebook · Mark Zuckerberg +1

Joining the AI Superintelligence Team

Zuckerberg is personally leading a massive hiring push to recruit elite AI talent to achieve Artificial General Intelligence (AGI). Reuters

- The Target Pool: Zuckerberg frequently targets researchers and engineers from rival companies like Google DeepMind and OpenAI.
- The Process: Highly specialized AI experts may receive direct outreach or receive waivers on standard interviews due to their unique expertise. Reddit +1
